

Workers' Compensation for the Transportation Industry

At Worldwide Facilities, we understand federal workers' comp laws and how to insure interstate operations under a state-based workers' compensation system. From inclement weather to treacherous traffic conditions, on-the-job injuries and accidents in the transportation industry can happen in an instant - often without warning. With us, brokers and businesses benefit from in-depth underwriting expertise, comprehensive risk management services, and established relationships with A.M. Best A- or better rated insurance carriers to secure the right coverage to help keep workers safe, manage claims, and control costs.
